Dear Bedell:

Before I left here for [ ] where I have a mountain of manuscript to go through, and my own fascinating work on Soviet intellectual controls to get at. I thought I if you have any reaction, positive or negative, of the Psychological Warfare Board on the proposal, I'd like to hear it.

I hope you are going to get in a breather over the hot summer in Washington, though I can well imagine how hard it is for you to get a minute off.

Please do remember that if I can ever be of any help,
I'm always at your service.
